The Sports Authority of India (SAI) was set up as a society registered under the Societies Registration Act of 1860, in pursuance of Resolution No. 1-1/83/SAI dated January 25, 1984, to carry forward the legacy of the IXth Asian Games held in New Delhi in 1982, under the Ministry of Youth Affairs and Sports (MYAS). SAI has been entrusted with the twin objectives of promoting sports and achieving sporting excellence at the national and international levels.

Subsequently, to facilitate the development of SAI as a robust sports promotion body, necessary knowledge and skills in the field of sports coaching and physical education were incorporated by amalgamating the erstwhile Society for National Institutes of Physical Education & Sports (SNIPES), consisting of Netaji Subhash National Institute for Sports (NSNIS), Patiala, and its centres along with two other educational institutes, namely, Lakshmibai National College of Physical Education (LNCPE) located in Gwalior and Thiruvananthapuram, with SAI effective from May 1, 1987. However, LNCPE, Gwalior, was delinked from SAI in September 1995 upon attaining the status of a "Deemed University." Today, SAI stands out as an apex body for the promotion of sports and sporting excellence in the country.

Secretary (Sports) further stated that since both SAI and NADA function under the Department of Sports, Ministry of Youth Affairs and Sports, GB may consider a waiver off the monthly licence fee as well as that of the outstanding licence fee liability in respect of the office space for NADA in the JLN Stadium.
